North Viet Nam Targets Blasted By 150 Planes

Shots Called By Washington In Strange War

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the strange new kind of war being fought in Viet Nam, detailed military shots are being called in Washington as never before in history.

This is because each military move against the Communists outside the borders of South Viet Nam is loaded with potential for bringing on a big-scale war.

In pre-atomic days, military commanders directed military operations once the fighting began. This was true in Korea, too, although a decision against carrying the war north of the Yalu into Red China was made by President Harry S. Truman.

The advent of the Kennedy administration brought to power a group of civilians, led by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who believed in the idea of controlled response to Communist threats and actions.

During last summer's Gulf of Tonkin shooting incident and again last weekend when the Communists attacked a U.S. compound and airfield near Pleiku, the Joint Chiefs of Staff recommended a list of targets for retaliation and the method of attacking them. President Johnson, McNamara and the National Security Council accepted the basic recommendations of the chiefs.

After the civilian officials had given their assent, the orders were passed down through the chain of command — through the U.S. commander in the Pacific, based at Honolulu, then to the commander of the Navy's 7th Fleet and U.S. military chiefs in Viet Nam.

Romney's Office Manager Beaten Up In Lansing

LANSING (AP)—Phil Pittenger, Gov. George Romney's office manager until last month, told police Wednesday that two men accosted him, asked him if he worked for Romney and then knocked him unconscious.

Pittenger, now administrative assistant to the state corporation and securities commission, said the men accosted him Tuesday night at a shopping center. He said he suffered no serious injury and declined medical attention.

The former Romney aide said he did not recognize the men, and believed they "were just out to raise some heck."

Rates Go Up; Auto Insurers Leave Michigan

LANSING (AP) — While auto insurance rates rise and policies are canceled, insurance companies are moving out of Michigan faster than they're coming in, legislators learned Wednesday.

House and Senate Insurance Committees met to gather background material for a Feb. 16-17 meeting in Detroit scheduled by Allen Mayerson, state insurance commissioner.

They heard testimony from Mayerson, Secretary of State James Hare, State AFL-CIO President August Scholle and representatives of the automobile underwriting industry.

Policies Cancelled
Auto accidents cost Michigan residents $380 million last year, Hare said, adding:

"With literally thousands of policies being cancelled out by insurance companies the number of uninsured motorists increases daily. Inevitably, the number of innocent victims who are injured in accidents and who can never receive compensation increases at the same level."

Hare long has advocated an unsatisfied judgement fund, which would pay motorists for losses suffered when involved in accidents with indigent, uninsured drivers. The fund has been proposed to the legislature.

Hare said his best estimates showed that some 15 per cent of Michigan motorists were uninsured—"although it could be as low as 10 per cent or as high as 25."

The figure, Mayerson said, was closer to 6 or 7 per cent. The trend among auto insurance companies, he said, "is to get out of Michigan, rather than to come in. Several larger insurers have left the state already or are considering leaving."

A committee of the executive board of State AFL-CIO has been named to look into the possibility of establishing a union insurance plan if present problems are not met, Scholle said after the hearing.

"But," he added, "we hope that it will not have to get that deeply involved, that there will be some sort of remedial legislation before we get that far."

His chief objections to present practices, he said, is the "quasi-judicial power now exercised by

Reprisal Raid Escorted By 20 U.S. Jets

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Striking from land and sea, about 150 U.S. and South Vietnamese warplanes smashed at targets in North Viet Nam today in reprisal for Viet Cong attacks capped by the blasting of a U.S. billet in Qui Nhon.

Four carrier-based U.S. Navy planes and one pilot were lost as a result of the action, otherwise described by an American spokesman as highly successful.

The bombing and rocket raids were launched while rescue workers still combed debris of the four-story U.S. enlisted men's billet in Qui Nhon for the living and dead of a terrorist bombing Wednesday night believed to have killed 22 Americans.

It was the third and heaviest reprisal since Sunday against North Viet Nam, which trains and supplies the Red guerrillas. The attacks were made through low, broken clouds.

Targets were officially described as barracks areas at Chan Hoa and Chap Le. They were left wreathed in columns of smoke.

Chan Hoa, is 50 miles north of the border and about four miles northwest of Dong Hoi, a coastal point struck by Navy planes Sunday. Chap Le is 8.5 miles north of the border.

More than 100 Navy jets from the carriers Hancock, Ranger and Coral Sea hit the barracks area at Chan Hoa.

Navy Loses Four
Chap Le was the target of 28 Vietnamese fighter-bombers, which struck across the 17th Parallel under escort of 20 U.S. Air Force F100 jet fighters. The escorts' job was to suppress anti-aircraft fire.

All the land-based craft returned safely. Of the four Navy planes lost, three went down at sea and one was smashed when its landing gear collapsed as it was attempting to put down at Dan Nang, an air base 80 miles south of the border. The pilots of three survived. The pilot of an F8D Crusader jet disappeared with his plane.

The Vietnamese planes smashed at staging areas for Viet Cong infiltrators with rockets and bombs after the American jets worked over the areas' defenses with their own rockets and bombs.

The commander of the Vietnamese air force, Brig. Gen. Nguyen Cao Ky, said his planes had hit military areas just north of camps hit in the raid Monday. All are close to the 17th Parallel.

Buildings Ablaze
One of the pilots, Capt. Phuong Nguyen Luy, said he could see many buildings afire, with heavy columns of smoke rising. He said he could not see any bodies on the ground.

Maj. Phuong Luu Kim had high praise for the work of the American jets in suppressing the North Vietnamese anti-aircraft fire.

He said that on Monday's raid his plane had picked up 24 bullet holes but that he returned today with only two holes. Most of the ground fire was from small arms, he reported.

No U.S. advisers rode in the Vietnamese planes.

Gen. Ky declined to say whether jets from the U.S. 7th Fleet also raided North Viet Nam today. He said no 7th Fleet planes were with his group but indicated Navy planes might have been in action elsewhere.

Ky led the raid on Monday but did not fly on the strike today.

Alive In Debris
At Qui Nhon, rescuers pulled out two American soldiers alive from the debris of the concrete enlisted men's quarters shattered by the Viet Cong explosion Wednesday night.

Twenty-two others, including two believed still alive, were buried under the mountain of rubble. Two others are dead. Sixteen Americans who got out of the blasted building were wounded. Four others escaped without injury.

Twenty-one Vietnamese also were believed killed, including two of the terrorists.

President Keeps Secrecy Lid On Viet Nam Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson kept a secrecy lid today on whatever new moves the United States is planning to meet the mounting Communist military drive in South Viet Nam.

Speculation focused on possible further air strikes against military bases in North Viet Nam. There was also some talk in informed quarters that specially trained U.S. Army troops or Marines might be sent to South Viet Nam to increase security of American installations.

Johnson met with his top military and diplomatic advisers — members of the National Security Council — for an hour and three-quarters Wednesday afternoon.

Afterward there was no public disclosure of any decisions. Some officials said privately the conflict in Southeast Asia seemed to be entering a much more serious phase.

Johnson was understood to be especially concerned by reports of increasing infiltration of Communist troops from North Viet Nam into South Viet Nam.

The United States had charged earlier this week that North Vietnamese leaders were responsible for directing attacks on U.S. installations in South Viet Nam Sunday which took a heavy toll of casualties.

The President ordered retaliatory air strikes against North Vietnamese bases near Dong Hoi where, according to intelligence information, infiltrators have been processed before going south. A followup strike against North Vietnamese positions was carried out Monday by South Vietnamese aircraft which flew under a cover of U.S. fighters.

Those operations fed the speculation that further retaliatory strikes would be carried out in the North in reprisal for the terrorist bombing of U.S. enlisted men's billet at the South Vietnamese tory of Qui Nhon Wednesday. The Defense Department said Wednesday night one serviceman was known dead. More than 20 were missing.

Congress Votes To Close Up 11 VA Hospitals

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has outmaneuvered Congress to turn back challenges to his conduct of foreign relations and his orders to close 11 veterans hospitals and 20 farm research stations.

By trading off some time, the President got voice-vote passage by the Senate Wednesday of a $1.6-billion supplemental money bill carrying watered down anti-Nasser and anti-closing riders. The measure, previously approved by the House, went to the White House.

The uproar caused by an original House vote to cut off the shipments of surplus foodstuffs to the United Arab Republic had died to the point where the matter wasn't even mentioned in the final debate. The flareup came after UAR President Gamal Abdel Nasser said, in effect, the United States could take its aid and "go to hell."

Johnson got authority to make the decision on whether additional shipments shall go to Egypt.

Instead of cutting off funds for the closing of Veterans Administration hospitals and agricultural research stations as the Senate had voted to do, both houses agreed to a compromise under which none would be closed until after May 1.

The Senate accepted this provision by a 62-9 vote, with nine Republicans voting against it.

Presumably this moratorium would give Congress time to look into the matter and recommend against some of the prospective shutdowns. But Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., told his colleagues that Congress was getting no guarantee that any of the facilities would be kept open.

Selma Negroes Ask Protection

SELMA, Ala. (AP)—Negroes sought protection of U.S. troops in their civil rights struggle in the wake of a long forced march by students who had angered Sheriff James G. Clark.

Still more right-to-vote demonstrations were promised today and some of the students said they would lie down on the sidewalk if Clark attempted to drive them away again.

Hundreds of aroused parents waiting to hear a renewed appeal for nonviolence from Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. voted Wednesday night to ask President Johnson to put Selma under martial rule.

King, returning to the city several hours after the sheriff had compelled 160 teen-age demonstrators to walk and run three miles into the countryside, warned his followers once more that they "must not return violence for violence."

The 1964 Nobel Peace Prize winner told a cheering throng of students, including many who made the long march, that the problem of "brutality, meanness and terror" in Selma will remain unsolved until the federal government "is willing to do something" about it.

At Qui Nhon, rescuers pulled out two American soldiers alive from the debris of the concrete enlisted men's quarters shattered by the Viet Cong explosion Wednesday night.

Twenty-two others, including two believed still alive, were buried under the mountain of rubble. Two others are dead. Sixteen Americans who got out of the blasted building were wounded. Four others escaped without injury.

Twenty-one Vietnamese also were believed killed, including two of the terrorists.

Language Riots Take 32 Lives In Indian Cities

MADRAS, India (AP) — Indian army units moved into Madras and eight outlying cities today to help police combat language rioting which has claimed 32 lives.

Bloody battles raged throughout Madras State as thousands of students opposing Hindi as India's official language attacked trains and fought police.

The nation's business interests had cause for concern, too, for economists have said uncertainty in steel is the chief threat to continued prosperity in the year ahead.

Abel Has Slim Lead In USW

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Challenger I. W. Abel clung to a slim lead today as the United Steelworkers Union continued the long count in their hard-fought election. The key to victory appeared to lie in the big locals, as yet largely unreported.

In the background, steelmakers kept a watchful eye on the returns still hoping for a decisive result in the close struggle between Abel, the big union's secretary-treasurer, and the man on whose right hand he served for 12 years, President David J. McDonald.

Steelmakers are eager to get on with bargaining for a new contract, suspended earlier this year during the bitter campaign. A close election could wind up in a long court fight. The union can strike May 1.

There also was the possibility that an Abel victory would make McDonald a lame-duck president when talks resume. He's said he would continue to negotiate no matter who wins and his four-year term runs to June 1.

The nation's business interests had cause for concern, too, for economists have said uncertainty in steel is the chief threat to continued prosperity in the year ahead.

Western States Get Heavy Snow

By The Associated Press

A giant storm roamed over the western United States today, dumping heavy snow on Colorado and Arizona while rain and snow struck much of the eastern half of the country.

Livestock warnings were in effect for western Nebraska and Kansas. Cold weather and snow harassed New England. Thunderstorms struck from Texas to the Carolinas.

A 6-inch snow fell Wednesday on Colorado's parched eastern plains, a dryland winter wheat area in the grip of a three-year drought. It was the first major precipitation of the winter on the eastern prairies and raised hopes for wheat farmers.

More than 6 inches of snow fell in Denver. Pueblo in southern Colorado had more than 8 inches and several other cities reported 6-inch accumulations.

A 4-inch blanket of snow in Tucson, Ariz., Wednesday was the third heaviest snowfall in history for the winter season.

Two to four inches of snow fell over southern Wyoming.

The Hastings-Grand Island area in central Nebraska had 12 to 16 inches of snow on the ground — a blessing for winter wheat.

Snow fell in the higher elevations of northern New Mexico and thunderstorms pounded the eastern section of the state while cold moved in from the West. Two schools were closed on the outskirts of Albuquerque.

Reds Hold Key Viet Nam Road

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Viet Cong troops, virtually unhindered by South Vietnamese government operations, have placed a stranglehold on the only overland route from Saigon to the border of Communist North Viet Nam.

There is evidence that corrupt local officials, acting in collusion with large and aggressive Communist forces, may have made the situation even worse.

Viet Cong toll booths on arterial Route 1, only 507 miles east of Saigon, have been operating openly and freely since November, apparently with no fear of major government interference.

These toll booths are believed to have financed the Communist offensive at Binh Gia in December. That operation cost government forces 500 casualties, including a score of Americans, and netted the Viet Cong quantities of arms and equipment.

Two Bound Over In Grand Rapids Armed Robbery

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A Kansas City man and a former Columbia, Mo., psychiatrist were bound over to circuit court after police court examination Wednesday on charges of armed robbery here.

Held in lieu of $50,000 bond each are David E. Barney, 25, and Dr. Robert F. Freeman, 41. They are charged in the Jan. 11 holdup of a second-hand store in which three persons were injured, two by gunshot and one by pistol-whipping.

The two also are charged in Missouri state warrants for armed robbery and burglary at homes in Columbia and Springfield, Mo.

Twenty-six inches of snow was on the ground at Sandia crest east of Albuquerque.

A treacherous sleet storm closed 200 schools and many business establishments in Minnesota. The Minnesota Highway Department said driving conditions ranged from "deplorable to treacherous."

A bus carrying 20 pupils slid into a ditch in Austin, Minn., but there were no injuries.

Thirty-one inches of snow covered Duluth, Minn., with 15 inches falling in a 24-hour period.

Hare's Proposal Angers Sheriffs

LANSING (AP) — Michigan sheriffs replied angrily Wednesday to statements by Secretary of State James Hare that the fee system encourages local officers to make sure applicants pass driver licensing tests.

"County and city examiners conduct examinations of driver's license applicants according to standards prescribed by state law and there is little leeway for allowing unqualified drivers to be licensed," said Robert Stites, executive secretary of the Michigan Sheriff's Association.

Hare has said the local police and sheriffs who now conduct examinations receive fees only if the driver passes the tests. He advocates state administration of the tests.

"At the last count," Stites said, "there are only seven counties out of 83 where the sheriff retains fees collected."

Hare's proposal, he added, "would result in bureaucratic wastefulness of the highest order."

Beatle Drummer Weds In London

LONDON (AP) — Ringo Starr, the Beatles' drummer, married 18-year-old Maureen Cox today. Ringo is 24.

A spokesman said the parents of both Ringo and his bride were present for the civil ceremony at the London's Caxton Hall registry office.

Ringo and Maureen were married at 8:15 a.m. After the ceremony they left London for a short honeymoon at an undisclosed place.

The spokesman said Ringo had to be back in London Monday for movie work.

Tax Aid For Aged Could Cost State 13 Million

LANSING (AP)—Property tax relief for the aged could cost Michigan as much as $13 million next fiscal year — possibly cutting Gov. George Romney's projected June 30, 1966, surplus from $72.4 million to less than $60 million.

Romney and the Democratic majority in the legislature both are exploring such tax relief, but no provision for it was made in Romney's proposed budget because of estimating difficulties.

Controller Glenn Allen, quizzed Wednesday by the Senate Appropriations Committee, said "we don't have a figure so we didn't put one in."

Dock Strikers Under Pressure

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special White House committee presses today for an end to the month-long strike that has tied up shipping on the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts at an estimated $6-billion loss to the nation's economy.

President Johnson appointed the three-man committee Wednesday and ordered it to report to him by noon Friday. He said the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association was "totally unjustified" in continuing the strike in ports where settlement has been reached.

Union President Thomas W. Gleason has held fast to the longshoremen's policy that none of the 60,000 men will return to work until agreement is reached at all ports.

"If we went back to work we would be sacrificing our union and we don't intend to do this," Gleason said.

The presidential committee composed of Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor and Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., will hear from both sides in the still unsettled Miami, Fla., and Galveston, Tex., negotiations.

Allen's cost estimates ranged down to $6 million for other measures which require 10 years of Michigan residence, raise the age minimum to 65 and, in various combinations, impose an income limit and limit on total assessed valuation of the homestead.

It is local taxes which would be affected but all plans under consideration call for the state to reimburse the local unit of government for revenue lost by the exemption.

Fire Destroys Furblo Factory

HERMANVILLE—Fire destroyed the plant of the Furblo Co., fabricators of oil tanks, here Wednesday night.

The cause of the fire has not yet been determined and the extent of the loss, partly covered by insurance, was not revealed. The building and contents were a total loss.

"This is too soon," said Reuben J. Marcoe, Furblo manager, when asked if the firm expects to rebuild and resume operations. "We have made no decisions."

He said the fire must have started about 8 p. m. and that "we don't know what caused it."

Firemen were called starting about 8:15 and responded from Hermansville, Spalding, Faithorn and the City of Norway. They battled the blaze in the large wooden building but were unable to bring it under control.

Chief Richard Grenier of the Meyer Township Volunteer Fire Department said the fire started on the east end of the one-story frame building that was constructed about 1915. The building was 75 feet wide and 150 feet long.

Manager Marcoe said Furblo began operations in the building about 1927, manufacturing fans and furnaces. At one time there was a considerable payroll.

More recently the operation was limited to the fabrication of oil tanks and about five or six men were employed.

Natural Gas Needs Shown

WASHINGTON (AP) — R. P. Raasch, supervisor of marketing expansion for Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha, testified Wednesday on exhibits he sponsored at a hearing on proposals to pipe natural gas to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

The exhibits indicate the gas demands for the 33 communities for which service is proposed by Northern in Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula.

The hearing is before FPC Examiner Francis Hall.

Under cross-examination, Raasch said individual witnesses will sponsor their own exhibits on the amount of gas needed by the community. However, he said, he had made a check of these request and found them reasonable and attainable.

Northern Natural is seeking authorization for a $35.7 million project to supply gas to the communities and industrial customers in the area.

In a competing application, Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. and Michigan Wisconsin, an affiliate, are proposing a $15.8 million project to serve 36 communities and an iron ore plant.

Attorneys for all the parties agreed to cross-examine, on Friday, witnesses for Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., which has six taconite plants in the upper peninsula. Three of these are located at Negaunee, and one each at Humboldt, Paler and Republic.

Health Dept. Tuberculin Test Program To Start

The Delta-Menominee District Health Dept. will begin a tuberculin-histoplasmin testing program in Delta County schools next month, Dr. Mary L. Cretens, director of the department, announced today.

Purpose of the tests is to determine whether a person has been infected with tuberculosis or histoplasmosis, she said. If a skin test is "positive" further studies are done to see if active disease is still present.

Both tuberculosis and histoplasmosis are lung diseases which can be transported from person to person.

Dr. Cretens said that forms for parents' permission are being distributed through the schools. Only grades nine through 12 will be given the histoplasmin test.

In Michigan, about three per cent of all children are positive tuberculin reactors, Dr. Cretens said. In some areas of the state there are 30 per cent reactions to the histoplasmin test, but little is known about Delta County, she said.

The last time a tuberculin testing program was carried out here was in 1963.

Lake Flight Hearing Set

The Upper Peninsula Air Service Committee will meet in the State Office Building, Escanaba, on Feb. 17, to consider a policy it will follow in the forthcoming Civil Aeronautics Board hearing on the petition of North Central Airlines to discontinue its "aerial bridge flight" from the U. P. to Traverse City.

After a stop at Traverse City the flight continues on to Detroit. North Central Airlines seeks to abandon the flight because of the low passenger volume.

City Manager George Harvey has advised the City Council that it is assumed the Air Service Committee "will take a stand to fight to retain this service and hopefully will attempt to show that a stop at Lansing would be most beneficial to the North Central people if this could be certified by the C. A. B."

"From previous meetings of the Committee it is obvious that most of the business of Upper Peninsula is in Lansing, and therefore the addition of Lansing as a stop on this particular aerial bridge flight would be most beneficial not only to the patrons of North Central but to North Central itself," Manager Harvey noted.

Representatives of county government and industries in Delta, Schoolcraft and Alger counties are being invited to participate in the Air Service Committee meeting.

Baking Potatoes Bring More Than 5 Cents Apiece

U. S. Grade No. 1 Russet Burbank potatoes are currently selling wholesale in Detroit for $8.50 per hundred, in bags with 10-ounce minimum tubers.

This means that the long, fancy bakers are wholesaling for over 5 cents each. Michigan farmers receive somewhat less and retail store prices would be higher, explains Dr. David Smith, crops science specialist with the Michigan State University Extension Service in Marquette.

Detroit and other Michigan buyers have been handling a greater volume of Michigan Burbanks ever since the quality bakers were spotlighted in 1963, when Upper Peninsula Burbank producers won the state award in the Michigan Week agricultural development competition. The potato market is strong throughout the country this year due to poor growing and harvesting conditions last year in many potato producing states.

Wesley Hawley, 1414 11th Ave. S., is a sixth cousin, once removed, of the late Winston Churchill, his daughter Marilyn (Mrs. John Symonds of Lansing), who is a hobbyist genealogist, has informed him.

Hawley, a missionary evangelist of the Church of Christ and former field officer of the Michigan Farm Bureau, said that Richard Rinehart, president of Bay de Noc College, a cousin, is also a relative of Churchill.

The genealogy which traces the relationship cites the Hawley line. The Hawleys migrated to America from Britain many years ago. The Churchill line connection came through the marriage of Mary Hawley and Robert Coe.

Abigail Coe wed John Guthrie, Sarah Guthrie wed Reuben Murray, Aurora Murray wed Isaac Jerome; Leonard Jerome wed Clarissa Hall, Jennie Jerome wed Randolph Churchill, Winston Churchill wed Clementine Hozier and Randolph Churchill wed Pamela Digby. Randolph Churchill is of Wesley Hawley's generation and a 7th cousin.

GENE PETERSON of Carney says this is a picture of a mink trap that was trapped by a cedar tree. The trap, believed set by Poly LaBonte or Aldage Murray of Spalding on land owned by Billy Kell at Wilson, was found embedded in the growth of the tree, which was cut by Kell and his workman, Bob Larson of Wilson, in cedar production for Peterson Brothers Fence Factory at Carney. The identification tag on the anchor chain had grown into the second tree. An animal caught in the trap apparently dragged trap and chain around the tree so that growth eventually embedded it. ## Facts About Income Taxes

IS IT TAXABLE

All amounts paid to you as compensation for personal services must be included in your gross income. Therefore, you must report wages, salaries, commissions, tips and other fees received. Sometimes payment is made in the form of goods or services provided, rather than in the form of money. In such cases, the fair market value of such goods and services must be shown as income on your income tax return. The value of meals and lodgings you might receive are not income if furnished on the employer's premises, and for his convenience.

An individual who receives wages or salary from an employer must have a Form W-2 attached to the return. An individual who has more than one employer may have more than $174 of Social Security tax withheld from his pay. If so, this excess is allowed as additional income tax withheld when filing the return.

The instruction books prepared by the Internal Revenue Service gives the average taxpayer the necessary help to prepare his income tax return. You are urged to first read the instructions, then start preparing your return. If a question arises, telephone 786-4183, your local Internal Revenue Service office for the answer.

CHILD-CARE EXPENSES

The Revenue Act of 1964 has liberalized the rules relating to the deduction of expenses for the care of certain dependents.

Briefly, under the law effective prior to 1964, a deduction of up to $600 was allowable in certain circumstances to women, regardless of their marital status, and widowers, for expenses paid for the care of certain dependents if such care was for the purpose of enabling the taxpayer to be gainfully employed.

For 1964 and thereafter, the basic rules which previously governed the deduction for such expenses have been retained. However, the new law has increased the age limitation from under 12 to under 13 for a child for whom child-care expenses may be deducted.

Furthermore, the new law has increased, in some cases, the amount of the deduction from $600 to $900 if the taxpayer has two or more dependents. It has also expanded the class of taxpayers eligible for the deduction, by now including a husband whose wife is incapacitated or is institutionalized.

Another important change made by the new law is to increase from $4,500 to $6,000 the income limitation applicable to working wives, and husbands with incapacitated wives.

FILING REQUIREMENTS FARMERS

Farmers if you had gross income of $600 or MORE during the year, you MUST file an income tax return even though no tax is due.

Even though some farmers might not have gross income of $600 or more for the year, they may still be required to file a Form 1040, which is the tax return, in order to pay the self-employment tax.

You will probably want to know just what is gross income and if the self-employment tax applies to you.

The fastest and surest way to the right answers is through the FARMER'S TAX GUIDE.

Get your free FARMER'S TAX GUIDE from your County Agricultural Agent or Local Internal Revenue Service Office.

CASUALTY LOSS DEDUCTION

A new one-hundred dollar limitation on personal casualty and theft losses has been added as part of the 1964 tax law.

This new provision is similar to the deductible feature of auto insurance policies and will apply to those losses arising from fire, storm, or other casualty or theft, which are sustained after 1963.

Under the new limitation, only the amount of each loss in excess of $100 which is not reimbursed by insurance or other means, can be taken as a deduction. This "100 floor" applies only to losses of property used for personal purposes. In the case of a casualty or theft loss of property used partially for business and partially for personal purposes, the $100 deductible will apply only to the net loss attributable to that portion of the property used for personal purposes.

Married taxpayers who must decide whether they should file a joint or a separate return should consider this new $100 provision. A husband and wife filing a joint return, will have met only one $100 deductible limit for each casualty or theft in which they either jointly or separately suffer a loss. However, if they file separate returns, each of them is subject to the $100 limitation for each casualty or theft loss.

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

Michael Church, University of Michigan Extension director of cultural projects reports that Alden L. Steck of Calumet has an Upper Peninsula winter scene painting in the University's current "Critic's Choice" show of Michigan art by 36 artists.

Steck, a Calumet businessman who's listed in "Who's Who in American Art," was chosen for this statewide show by Church because "he is truly representative of the Upper Peninsula. He does not try to imitate national or international styles; he is himself and he takes great pride in presenting scenes of the Upper Peninsula. He has exhibited at the University of Michigan, Suomi College, Grand Rapids, Kansas and San Francisco."

Another U. P. exhibitor is Tarno Watia, formerly of Hancock, who received his art training at the University of Michigan. Son of a Hancock businessman, he's received many art prizes.

Sunnyside Club Holds Party

BARK RIVER—The Sunnyside 4-H Club held a Valentine party at the Lloyd Olson home Monday evening with all the girls present. Susan Johnson and Diane Porath were games committee chairmen and kept the girls busy. Later in the evening the girls roasted weiners and marshmallows in the fireplace.

Names had been drawn at the first meeting and each girl made a valentine for the person whose name she had. Pat-sy Viau won the prize for the prettiest valentine which was a white organdy heart-shaped apron with decorations in the valentine motif.

During the business meeting club members decided to have a fish pond at the 4-H Fair to be held at the Flat Rock Hall, Sunday, February 21. The deadline for completing their garments is March 20. County Achievement Day in Escanaba will be April 3, and the local achievement program will be held at the Bark River-Harris Elementary School before that date.

A donation of $5 was made to a Cerebral Palsy Telethon. Lunch was served by the leaders, Mrs. Clifford Olson, Mrs. Lloyd Olson, Mrs. Paul Ault and Mrs. Walter Nordin.

Tower Bureau

The Tower Farm Bureau will meet Monday, Feb. 15, at 8:15 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Kane. The discussion topic will be "Limited Water Supply and Pollution Solution Needed".

Luther League Names Officers

RAPID RIVER — Ruth Gul-lirkson was selected president of Rapid River Calvary Lutheran League. Other new officers are vice president, Margaret Soderberg, 2nd term; secretary, Lynn Stenlund; treasurer, Beverly Koakola; devotional secretary, Bonnie Hansen, second term.

Devotions were led by Rev. George Olson. Lunch was served by Pam Moore and Margaret Soderberg. The next league meeting will be held Wednesday, Feb. 17.

Divided Ireland Leaders Confer

DUBLIN (AP) — The Irish had another get-together Tuesday when Capt. Terence O'Neill, prime minister of Northern Ireland, came to Dublin to confer with Prime Minister Sean Lemass of the Irish Republic.

The leaders of the divided island first met last month in Belfast, discussing possible economic cooperation.

Pep-Pill Menace Growing In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — They call them yellow jackets and red devils and other picturesque names.

But from New York to California, from campus to slum hangout, they can mean trouble and wrecked lives.

A youthful psychiatrist, who worked his way in among football and pep-pill addicts and attended their "spree" parties gave the House Interstate Commerce Committee a vivid picture of the problem Tuesday.

"The problem is like an iceberg, most of it being under the surface," Dr. John B. Griffith, director of the Oklahoma Mental Health Planning Committee, told congressmen.

They are considering a bill aimed at curbing the bootleg traffic in depressant and stimulant drugs, specifically barbiturates and amphetamines. Griffith was invited to tell them about his research project in and around Oklahoma City.

He found that Oklahoma City has only three dozen or so hard narcotics addicts; it has 1,000 to 5,000 persons addicted to barbiturates and amphetamines.

The misuse of the drugs — valuable medical aids when prescribed by a physician — was not confined to "people who don't take a bath or don't go to church," said Griffith.

One problem, Griffith said, is when a physician writes a prescription that can be filled indefinitely for an amphetamine to help a person lose weight.

The patient keeps refilling it, said Griffith, and "they feel so good they became habituated to it and go down hill."

This, he said, is "usually the root where middle and upper class people are concerned."

Griffith noted that college students have been known to use the pep pills to help them cram during exams. One student Griffith found out about "was making $200 a week selling the pills during exams. He was using his mother's prescription."

The psychiatrist told the committee he attended a party where drug users emptied the contents of an ordinary inhaler, which was equal to 30 tablets of amphetamine, soaked the contents in water "and shot it into themselves intravenously."

Gen. McDonald Asks Injunction

LANSING (AP) — Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald, suspended State Adjutant General, has asked the Court of Appeals to grant an injunction restraining Gov. George Romney from sitting on permanent removal hearings, scheduled to start Monday.

McDonald contended in his brief, filed in the second court district at Lansing, that he would not receive a fair and impartial trial because Romney already had pre-determined that he is guilty and that his constitutional rights, both state and federal, would be violated.

Aides said the court is expected to give a fast decision in the appeal.

Bared By Farnum

McDonald and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, State Quartermaster General, both were first removed by Romney, then reinstated and suspended pending the hearing before the governor.

They were charged in a land-liquor scandal on evidence uncovered by former Aud. Gen. Billie Farnum.

McDonald asked the court to either set aside and dismiss the proceedings now pending against him or enter a permanent injunction restraining Romney from proceeding further.

McDonald said Romney originally contended he was guilty on 11 charges but that only three charges are involved in the hearing to be conducted by the governor.

Approval Claimed

McDonald further declared in his brief that:

"The act under which he is being given a public hearing specifically refers to impeachment proceedings against the attorney general or secretary of state and is not applicable in this case."

The charges preferred against him were not made by the governor, who has that duty, but were made in a petition signed by Maj. Gen. Cecil Simmons, chief of staff of the military establishment, and Beaman Potter, director of the State Audit Division.

"The military board approved his acts before they were completed, and Simmons made offers to purchase real estate at Camp Grayling 'in a manner similar to that he now claims was illegal.'"

His actions were approved by the State Audit Division, of which Potter is now director, after audits made in 1957, 1959 and 1962.

Romney had taken no action on a motion to dismiss by McDonald based on the contention that the governor had pre-determined his guilt and was disqualified to hear the proceedings.

The attorney general has advised him he had no method available to subpoena witnesses needed for his defense.

ESCANABA CASTS LOT

The Escanaba City Council, abandoning a hope to ride out the current contest for federal authority to serve the Upper Peninsula with natural gas, has asked the Federal Power Commission to give the right to serve the city to the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. of Detroit.

Michigan Consolidated and Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha are both before the Federal Power Commission in Washington hearings seeking its approval to serve U.P. areas with natural gas.

Northern Natural proposes to build a gas pipe line from the end of its present system at Duluth eastward to Escanaba and Gladstone, serving the Upper Peninsula cities enroute.

Michigan Consolidated proposes to serve only the lower part of the Upper Peninsula, from Rapid River westward to Iron River, from the end of the pipeline of its sister company, Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Co., at Menominee.

Thus both utilities ask federal permission to serve the Escanaba-Gladstone area with natural gas.

It would be less troublesome politically for the Escanaba Council to side with Northern Natural because it proposes to sell gas wholesale to the city and let the city distribute it in its own gas distribution system, which now sells propane gas to city customers.

In contrast, Michigan Consolidated wants to buy the City of Escanaba's gas distribution system. Such a sale would have to be authorized by the voters at public referendum. Sale of the city-owned gas utility would also probably involve sale of the city-owned central steam plant in downtown Escanaba.

Still Escanaba City Council supported Michigan Consolidated.

Why? For such strong reasons that any other position would seem a denial of public interest.

Council faced a situation in which the Federal Power Commission isn't going to give a permit to both competing utilities to serve the Escanaba Area; that would be uneconomical and foolish.

Escanaba, then, knew one of them was going to get the permit and not both and that when it came to deal directly with a natural gas utility it would be the one authorized by the FPC to serve this area. If it could, during the process of selection of a utility by the FPC, help the utility which it judged could serve it best get the permit, it would be in a strategic position.

It should be seeking the best deal for Escanaba to the end that its people and businesses would get the best service at the most economic price. Michigan Consolidated appears in the best position to do this on the basis of public presentations so far in the competition. It has said that it will give its U.P. customers the same rates offered downstate—nearer the gas fields.

Its pipeline is not only already in the U.P. at Menominee, it is also oversized to care for U.P. extension on the order of the Federal Power Commission.

It will surely cost Michigan Consolidated less money in line investment to serve the U.P. areas it is asking to serve than it would cost Northern Natural, bringing its line from afar.

The city sought expert advice from Black & Veatch, the consulting engineers, who, after a study, said that a fair purchase price for the city's gas plant would be in the $500,000 to $700,000 range and that if it got $600,000 the economic benefits to the city under city ownership and private ownership would be the same. It noted that with private ownership the city would no longer have to set aside funds (totaling $315,000 last June) for self-insurance and other needs.

The Michigan Public Service Commission, guarding the public interest at the state level, has recommended to the FPC that the U.P. be split between the two gas utilities. M.A. Hanna Mining Co., had Stone & Webster make a study for it of the feasibility of dividing the U.P. market and signed with Michigan Consolidated for their Groveland Mine in Dickinson County when the study showed that service to the south U.P. by Michigan Consolidated would not destroy the economic feasibility of service to the rest of the U.P. by Northern Natural.

For quickest service with lowest rate prospect Escanaba's Council resolved: "We consider it to be in our best interests to take a stand on this issue consistent with that of the Michigan Public Service Commission. Accordingly, for the benefit of all communities in the two Peninsula areas, we urge that the Federal Power Commission immediately approve the application of Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. . . . and that Northern Natural Gas Co. . . . be given the balance of the area . . ."

Boy Scout Week

When Chuck Foreman, new Hiawathaland Boy Scout Council executive, asked a show of hands at Monday's luncheon meeting of the Gladstone Rotary Club most of the men in the room raised a hand to signal that they are former Scouts or Scouters. The organization has made a helpful impression on American character and its leaders alone today comprise the largest adult organization of its kind in America, said Foreman.

This is Boy Scout Week and it finds the Red Buck District of Boy Scouts (all of Delta County, part of Schoolcraft County including the City of Manistique and the north half of Menominee County) with 35 Boy Scout units totaling a membership of 1,143 Scouts, Cubs and Explorers, an increase of 10 per cent over 1963.

Service clubs and church groups are saluting the Scouts on their 55th anniversary in America here this week and it is a deserved honor. Scouting has enriched the lives of millions of Americans. It teaches that a Scout is clean—morally, mentally, physically—and enrolls more than a million of the nation's finest adults as leaders in its youth program.

Boy Scouting is one of the programs supported by Delta United Charities.

Measles Curbed By New Vaccine

MIDLAND (AP)—A new, one-shot vaccine providing protection for common measles is now on the market, a product of the Pitman-Moore division of Dow Chemical Co. The product, to be sold under the name "Lirugen," is 99 per cent effective for children and offers immunity for as much as 2½ years, Pitman-Moore said. The division said Lirugen produces "few reactions," in children, thus eliminating the need for supplementary injections of gamma globulin to combat fever and rash. Some 20 million children in the United States under the age of 10 are currently unprotected against measles, the company estimated.

Lincoln Death Followed End Of War By 5 Days

Abraham Lincoln observed his 56th and final birthday on Feb. 12, 1865. The war and his life were passing swiftly into time's memory.

The Civil War ended in the stillness of Appomattox on April 9. President Lincoln was fatally shot at Ford's Theatre in Washington, D. C., the night of the 14th. The next morning he was dead.

"On his death," Carl Sandburg wrote in the National Geographic, "the casket with his body was carried north and west a thousand miles; and the American people wept as never before; bells sobbed; cities wore crepe; people stood in tears and with hats off as the railroad car paused in the leading cities of the seven states, ending its journey at Springfield, Ill., the home town."

"Never Come to Much" The facts of Lincoln's birth on Feb. 12, 1809, lie buried in the rich loam of legend. Decades after the event in a dirt-floor cabin in Kentucky, neighbors and relatives "remembered." The saga grew. Looking on the wrinkled, newborn baby, a 9-year-old cousin had supposedly remarked, "He'll never come to much."

As President Lincoln's last birthday drew near, he was broodingly concerned with charitable ways to reunite Americans and "bind up the nation's wounds." He had just returned from a discouraging peace mission to Hampton Roads, Virginia, in the collapsing Confederacy.

On Feb. 5, he called the cabinet together to read his draft of a document for Congress' consideration as a joint resolution. It stated in part: "That war will cease and armies be reduced to a basis of peace; that all political offenses will be pardoned; that all property, except for slaves, liable to confiscation or forfeiture, will be released therefrom." The cabinet disapproved his magnanimity. The draft was never sent.

The day before his last birthday, Mr. Lincoln attended to routine matters. He permitted an interview by a Rhode Island journalist; heard out an Illinois man seeking aid for the Society of Friends; and helped Mrs. Lincoln welcome guests to an afternoon reception attended by General and Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant.

History records no special observance at all on his birthday. He usually had breakfast with Mrs. Lincoln at 9 a.m., then went to his office at 9:30. That day he consulted with a District of Columbia judge, and received a visit from a Connecticut Senator.

"With Malice Toward None" Mr. Lincoln's second inauguration was, of course, just around the corner. On March 4, he took the oath of office at the Capitol after making his memorable address with its classic benediction: "With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations."

Forty-one days later, on Good Friday, April 14, 1865, the day of the assassination, the President sat in his office talking to a friend.

"Everything is bright this morning," he said. "The war is over. . . . We are going to have good times now, and a united country."

The Doctor Says:

'Rest Cure' Overdone

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt
In the days when there were no drugs or other measures to combat some of the more serious infectious diseases, the "rest cure" became standard medical practice. How many persons it killed instead of cured is anybody's guess.

Other harmful fads such as routine blood-letting and routine purging have been pretty generally laid to rest, along with many of their victims, but the abuse of rest is still with us.

In 1948 a group of normal volunteers were put in plaster casts for six weeks. When the casts were removed it took them another six weeks to recover from their extreme weakness and tremors.

Although they had been given an adequate diet while they were immobilized, severe calcium and protein depletion had occurred.

These effects would have been much worse if the volunteers had not been in excellent health at the start of the "rest cure."

Some 25 years ago, following a hospital delivery, mothers were kept in bed for two or three weeks.

When they were finally allowed to get up, some of these mothers dropped dead because a dislodged blood clot from the thigh obstructed the circulation of the lungs.

The high cost of hospital care can be credited with reducing the post-delivery con-

FISH COUNT

The creel census on Little Bay de Noc is designed to provide information on the total number of hours fished, the total number of fishermen, the number of fish taken, the kinds of fish taken, the condition of each kind and of the total fishery, distribution of fishing pressure and success by areas and by time.

The time distribution can be broken down to hours of the day and to days of the week. Once in possession of such basic figures, a lot of other valuable and interesting information can be computed such as the average catch per hour for the entire fishery or for different times of the day or season.

Of course, the most accurate way to get this information would be to interview each and every fisherman as he leaves the ice upon completion of his fishing trip. This would require much more time and men than are available. Fortunately statisticians have devised formulas and sampling procedures which can be applied and which give remarkably accurate results.

In this case the days are broken up into three periods of four hours each; they are 7 a. m. to 11 a. m.; 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., and 3 p. m. to 7 p. m. This totals 12 hours a day or 84 hours a week. There are four access points to cover so complete coverage would require one crew at each point for 84 hours each week for a total of 336 hours. Only one crew is available and they work a 40 hour week. It is necessary then to use a sampling system. The four hour period or periods to be sampled each day are picked at random. The figures so gathered are applied to the statistical formula to get total figures.

Since nearly all fishermen go to the fishing grounds by car, the car is considered the basic sampling unit. Then, to get the number of fisherman hours spent it is necessary to know the average number of fishermen per car, how many hours each car stays on the ice and how many cars are involved.

The fish are counted so we can determine how many fish are being taken by each fisherman on an average. The averages are needed for each four hour period covered so they can be applied to comparable four hour periods which are not covered by the census crew. The number of cars on the ice are counted every hour during a sampling period to insure accuracy.

The creel census on Little Bay de Noc is a part of a larger program aimed at evaluating and developing the sport fishery in the Great Lakes. The information gathered will be useful in determining where future development programs should be initiated and what those programs will consist of.

Dear Ann Landers: You won't print this but I'm writing because I want to get something off my chest.

You received many letters roasting the woman who undresses in the closet but you didn't get even one letter in her defense. I'd like to speak up in behalf of that woman because we have a great deal in common.

I don't undress in the closet. I undress in a different house.

For over a year I was mauled, pinched, squeezed and patted until I was on the verge of a nervous breakdown. No matter what I was doing, how I looked, what my mood—happy sad, sick or well, my husband (who showed no hint of his enormous carnal appetite before marriage) was breathing down my neck—leering, panting, pawing until I couldn't stand the sight of him.

"Night and Day" was written for him, but it meant only one thing. Sex. A knot on a tree reminded him of a woman's shape. Mentally he undressed every woman he saw, and he never failed to tell me in detail of his reactions. You would probably say he is sick, but so far as I know he is still running around loose.

I had enough sex in one year to last me a lifetime. I had to leave him to save my sanity. Now you can throw this letter away, but I feel better for having written it.—STATUE OF LIBERTY

Dear Lib: Your ex-husband's morbid preoccupation with sex is indeed sick. But you have a problem, too. Obviously, you don't like sex and you liked your husband even less. Some women would have adored at least some of that attention. Ah! The unfairness of it all.

Resorts Want Sunday Liquor

LANSING (AP) — Sunday liquor sales are needed in Michigan to boost the tourist and resort business, especially in areas near neighboring states a legislative study committee has concluded.

A local option vote on the issue was recommended Wednesday by the interim study committee headed by Rep. Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe.

A bill already has been introduced in the senate by Sen. Stanley Rozycki, D-Detroit, to permit the local option vote on liquor in cities, villages and townships where Sunday beer and wine sales already are permitted. A majority vote would permit the sale of liquor on Sunday between 4 p.m. and midnight under the bill.

"We have concluded from all the facts that the study has shown us, as a whole, Michigan is in need of the types of services to the public that the sale of spirits on Sunday will permit to stimulate the tourist and convention trades," the legislative report said.

Sunday liquor sales, however, are needed more in some areas than others, said the legislators, and some areas known as definite tourist attractions nevertheless do not want Sunday sales.

Mentioned in the report as areas bordering other states that would benefit were Detroit, Ironwood, Iron Mountain, S. Joseph - Benton Harbor and Port Huron.

The local option method, the study said, would permit a choice where there is obvious need but would not force unwanted legislation in an area where it was not needed or wanted.

Defense Stockpile To Be Cut Down By 5.2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed by voice vote Tuesday and sent to the House a bill to facilitate disposal of unnecessary material in the government's $8.5-billion defense stockpile.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., floor manager for the bill in the Senate, said $5.2 billion worth of the stockpiled material is surplus to defense requirements.

A SLEIGH RIDE was enjoyed by Cub Pack 411, Jefferson School, at the Elmer Dahn farm at Brampton recently. There were two sleighs used and the drivers were Elmer Dahn and Wally Thompson. Holding a Pinewood Derby recently at the Legion Club, winners were Francis Kidd, first, Howard Willyard, second, and Dwayne Willyard, third. Jim Trim is the pack's assistant cubmaster.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The head of an 86-man Nationalist Chinese agricultural team working in South Viet Nam said that far production had increased in that country despite the war.

Chrysler Builds In Detroit Area

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. is expected to announce plans soon for construction of a Dodge truck assembly plant in the Detroit area, the Detroit Free Press reported today.

The plant, estimated to cost in excess of $35 million, will provide approximately 2.5 million square feet of floor space, the newspaper said. As many as 6,000 employees would be involved in producing light and medium weight trucks.

The exact location of the proposed plant has not been announced. But because of the nearly 300 acres required for the buildings it is expected to be in suburban Detroit, it was reported.

Since thousands of tons of steel are required for the plant, timing of the actual start of construction is expected to depend largely on the progress of negotiations between the steel industry and the United Steelworkers Union.

Sun Slows Up At This Time Of The Year

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The sun is dawdling about getting up in the morning and going to bed at night at this time of year.

Matter of fact, says University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh, the sun at this period of the calendar is moving at its slowest speed.

If your wristwatch seems a little fast, blame it on the sun. The difference between the time indicated by the sun and that of our clocks is greater now than at any other period of the year, she says.

Clocks sometimes are more reliable than the sun. The sun, says professor Losh, alternately runs slow or fast — though this irregularity is predictable. "Right now the sun happens to be running slowest, and our clocks keep noticeably ahead," she says.

Tempers Flare In West Inquiry

LANSING (AP)—Tempers began to flare Wednesday as house Democrats and Republicans continued their debate over beleaguered Rep.-Elect Daniel West, D-Detroit.

The house Republican caucus said it "deplored the delay of the Democratic majority" on the committee investigating the qualifications of West, who has been indicted on 117 counts of income tax law violation, charged with voting irregularities and forgery.

It drew explosive reactions from Rep. J. Robert Traxler, D-Bay City, majority floor leader, and Albert Kramer, D-Oak Park, committee chairman.

And sources indicated that not even the Republicans agreed on whether the committee was acting fast enough in deciding West's fate.

"They talk about speed when that guy in the front office (Gov. George Romney) has been holding off for months now on (the case of) Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald," Traxler said.

McDonald, suspended as State Adjutant General last Oct. 8, is due for a hearing before Romney Monday. He has appealed to the State Court of Appeals to have the proceeding stopped.

"He's been trying to get a hearing since December," Traxler said. "There's a real parallel between these cases—it's a question of granting people their rights to due process of law."

Lt. Gov. Milliken Takes His Office Up To Houghton

LANSING (AP)—Lt. Gov. William Milliken will start his Office-to-People Program next Wednesday morning at Houghton County Courthouse, Houghton.

He'll meet with any interested person or group starting at 10 a.m. "So far as I know," said Milliken, "this will be the first time that a lieutenant governor ever has taken his office to the people in this manner."

Old Mill Whistle Toots Again In Gaylord Area

GAYLORD (AP)—After a dozen years of silence, an old steam whistle once again is calling workers to their jobs in the Gaylord-Grayling area.

From 1927 to 1953 the whistle called workers to the Salling-Hanson Co. lumber mill, the Kerry-Hanson flooring mill and the Atlas Plywood Co.

The whistle, more than a half-century old, was mounted atop the Atlas mill. When the mill closed in 1953 the whistle became silent.

The whistle sounded again this month from its new mounting atop the U.S. Plywood Corp.'s flakeboard Novoply plant near here. The $5.5 million plant was presented the whistle by officials of Grayling and Gaylord.

Traffic Safety Plans Approved

LANSING (AP)—The State Safety Commission voted unanimously Tuesday to support Gov. George Romney's traffic safety program in the legislature although the Democratic chairman indicated he wasn't entirely happy with it.

Secretary of State James Hare, who also functions as commission chairman, made the vote unanimous despite an aside remark that he "had hoped to support a stronger program."

Democrat Hare had criticized Romney for not including in his program legislation to take driver licensing powers away from local sheriffs and police departments and place them under state control.

Romney instead recommended a study of the proposal.

"I think we've had enough studies," Hare commented.

Fire Is Started By Church Organ

EAST LANSING (AP)—Fire officials Tuesday estimated damage at $150,000 from a fire which destroyed the chancel area of the Peoples Church Monday night. The fire apparently started in electric organ controls and was reported immediately by organist Dr. Corliss Arnold, who was instructing a student musician at the time.

Hospitalized Children Like Nurses And Food

ANN ARBOR — Youngsters dislike shots, blood tests, X-rays, and staying in bed. But they like food and nurses.

Practically all admitted that being hospitalized was not so bad after all.

These are some of the results of a survey given to 50 young patients at the University of Michigan Hospital.

The questionnaire was designed by Mrs. Antonietta Leeds, a supervisor in the U-M Hospital School and a lecturer in the School of Education, to examine children's attitudes toward their hospital stay.

The youngsters, age 8 to 17, filled in answers to a series of short questions and drew pictures of themselves and of what they like and disliked most about the hospital.

After examining the answers, Mrs. Leeds concludes that despite the tremendous possibilities for trauma in a hospital situation, most children "are even more resilient than I had previously believed."

Like Adults

Mrs. Leeds said she was not surprised to find that the majority of children said they had been sad or scared when they first entered the hospital.

She says a youngster's fears of a hospital are similar to adult anxieties about traveling in a foreign country. "The very difference in customs, of food and the way it is served, and of language and one's ability to keep up with what is going on about him could be very distressing."

"Add to that the forced separation from parents and the probability of being physically hurt by needles or perhaps surgery—and all the while not feeling well, and the youngsters' nervousness becomes understandable," she says.

Their Preferences

Most of the children said what they liked best about their hospital stay was the nurses or the food, and that being hospitalized was better than they thought it was going to be.

The arts and crafts program, run by the Hospital School, seemed to be a favorite activity, according to the survey results.

The youngsters were also asked what they would have more of if they were running a hospital for children. They indicated a preference for more TV, candy and going outside.

One nine-year-old boy would equip his hospital with "more guns."

Seat Belts Added

DETROIT (AP)—American Motors Corp., joined Ford Motor Co., and Chrysler Corp., Wednesday in announcing plans for making rear seat belts standard equipment on new cars. Front seat belts have been standard equipment on U. S. cars since Jan. 1, 1964.

"Our next speaker is the noted author of the book, 'Secrets of Relaxation'."

in several years," said Del R. Schmidt, vice president of Employers Mutuals of Wausau, a principal insurer of logging operations in the state.

The Michigan rate for logging operations, revised annually by the Michigan Workmen's Compensation Rating Bureau in accordance with accident experience, was recently reduced from $16.92 (per $100 of payroll) to $13.12, a savings of 22 per cent. The figure can be further reduced to $11.15 by dividend payments if the accident experience continues to be favorable.

All Michigan logging employers with an annual premium of $750 or more over a three-year period are eligible for the experience rating plan, Schmidt said.

Previous rates for loggers were $17.86 in 1962, $15.91 in 1961, $18.80 in 1960. Lowest rate in recent years was $12.61 per $100 of payroll in 1956.

Employers Mutuals' safety and health services have in recent years conducted logging workshops to assist the logging operators with accident prevention efforts.

West also is under $1,000 bond on two charges of voter registration fraud. He is under $10,000 federal court bond on 117 indictments of falsifying federal tax returns.

West has been denied his seat in the legislature until a committee decides allegations that he masqueraded under the identity of a prominent New York attorney, now deceased.

Police said a check of West's fingerprints disclosed a lengthy criminal record.

That Fishing Hole--In The Ice

As long as the ice holds, thousands of winter anglers flock to Houghton Lake, Mich., and set up shop for ice fishing. Anything from shanties to tents to windbreaks can be seen over the lake.

For the children of ice fishermen, it can be a long, cold wait. That's why Frosty the Snowfish was made. Frosty is designed with a built-in slide. Fun and games while parents fish.

Some ice fishermen still chop holes in the ice, but a power auger (left) does the job a lot faster. No fancy fishing poles are used, simple equipment is suited to the special conditions. Some fishermen use spears, some a crossed-stick device that signals when a fish has taken the bait (center). And for anglers that like the convenience of home, a Michigan telephone company has installed a booth out on the ice (right).

Ice fishing continued to attract large numbers of sportsmen each year. It can be seen strikingly in the odd community which blossoms on the winter ice at Houghton Lake, Mich. Eager anglers come by the thousands. The town's Chamber of Commerce deserts its quarters on land and moves into a shanty on the lake, as part of the winter community officially called Tip-Up-Town. Refreshment stands do a booming business. The local telephone company gets into the spirit by running a line out onto the ice. Most fishermen prefer cratelike shanties which can be heated. In them they sit comfortably and watch their tip-ups. Portable hand warmers, vacuum bottles full of hot drinks, charcoal burners and thermal boots are additional aids in warding off the chill.

Triple Killing Plea Offered

DETROIT (AP) — A man accused of killing his wife and two other men offered Wednesday to withdraw his plea of innocent to first degree murder and plead guilty to manslaughter.

Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Max M. Silverman said such a plea by John H. Frazier, 41, would be acceptable "because of the extreme provocation involved."

Recorder's Court Judge Vincent J. Brennan said he would be without a decision until March 3 on whether to permit the change.

Frazier is charged in the deaths of his wife, Dorothy, 40, Clarence Z. DePotie, 47, and Pierre Paulin, 51, a Detroit area radio-TV announcer.

Frazier told police he discovered his wife in bed with DePotie Sept. 14 when he went to a radio announcing school operated by Paulin.

He said he shot Paulin because the announcer was laughing when he told Frazier where his wife and DePotie were.

Conviction on a first-degree murder charge carries a mandatory life sentence. The maximum sentence for manslaughter is 15 years.

All Iowans applying for a driver license for the first time now receive a one-year temporary permit, which is subject to immediate invalidation for conviction of a single moving violation.

REVERSED RIVER'S RUN

The Chicago River flows backward. So that no sewage would be carried into Lake Michigan (from which Chicago gets its drinking water), engineers reversed the course of the river with a series of locks, according to the Britannica Junior Encyclopedia.

Seaway Brings Michigan New Insect Pests

LANSING (AP)— New insect pests can be expected in Michigan because of the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway, the pesticide advisory committee to the State Agriculture Department was advised Wednesday.

The warning was given by G. S. McIntyre, department director, at the first meeting of the newly organized 17-member group, which will advise the department on control policies.

Members were given a briefing on present control measures for such insect pests as the Gypsy Moth, Japanese Beetle and Cereal Leaf Beetle.

The advisory committee scheduled a tentative meeting with Gov. George Romney for April 6 to discuss the problem.

Hockey Flareup To Cost Money

The Montreal Canadiens, shackled by their worst slump in 14 years, gloomily awaited disciplinary action today by National Hockey League President Clarence Campbell following Wednesday night's 6-2 loss to Toronto. The Maple Leafs, also in line for fines for their part in a second-period brawl, could afford to be more cheerful about them. They won the game.

The loss, Montreal's fifth in a row, dropped the Canadiens into a second-place tie with the Maple Leafs, four points back of Chicago, which whipped Detroit 5-2.

Two goals by Ron Ellis, both on feeds from Frank Mahovlich, broke the game open early in the second period. The rookie's 15th and 16th goals came just 26 seconds apart and the brawl broke out on the very next rush into Canadian ice.

It started with a delayed penalty called on Montreal's John Ferguson for hooking Mahovlich. When Mahovlich took the Canadiens' Terry Harper into the boards, Ted Harris of Montreal squared off with the Toronto player.

Soon, fights and wrestling matches broke out all around the Montreal nets with players pouring off both benches to join the action. NHL rules call for automatic $25 fines for any player leaving the bench to join in a fight and when referee Bill Friday and linesmen John D'Amico and Matt Pavelich got things settled down, there were 14 Canadians and 10 Leafs on the ice.

Both Pro Grid Leagues Will Ban Early Signings

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Football League has followed the rival National League by banning premature signings, but neither pro league has agreed to two other proposals aimed at protecting the nation's colleges in the multimillion-dollar war over top player talent.

Joe Foss, commissioner of the AFL, issued his statement on premature signings Wednesday in a document that almost paralleled one issued by NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle last month.

Both leagues are now on record as prohibiting the signing of college football seniors until the teams have completed their seasons, including bowl games.

That, however with a few small exceptions, is as far as

MARQUETTE — Four Upper Peninsula high school cagers already have gone over the 400-point mark for the season, with one of them hitting 509 to lead the scoring parade for the current campaign.

Atop the point production list is Hermansville's 5-9 senior ace Ron Povolo, who has laced the basketball at a 36.4 per-game clip by posting 509 points in 14 games.

Felch's Gary Blomquist is second with 492 collected in 16 games, while Dom Jacobetti, Negaunee St. Paul, is third with 445, and Bob Gale, Trout Creek, is fourth with 420. The latter two, however, have appeared in only 14 games.

Illinois Team Climbs To 7th

By The Associated Press

Unheralded Southern Illinois which gave top-ranked Evansville its toughest battle of the season, has moved in among the first 10 in The Associated Press' small-college basketball poll.

Unranked a week ago, the Carbondale team soared to seventh place. Augsburg, Minn., is the only other new team in the top ten.

Meanwhile, Evansville strengthened its lead, collecting 17 first-place votes and one for second place for a 179-point total in the balloting by special panel of 18 regional experts. The Aces lifted their record to 18-0 last week with victories over DePauw and Indiana State.

Southern Illinois is 12-4. The Salukis dropped an 81-80 decision to Evansville on the Aces' home court three weeks ago and a return match is scheduled at Carbondale on Feb. 27.

Russian Vaulter Nearing Record

NEW YORK (AP) — There's an excellent but unhappy chance that the Russians are going to get lonesome, 'way up there all by themselves.

The Russian delegation to the New York Athletic Club Games tonight includes Valery Brumel, who should win the high jump with little trouble, and pole vaulter Gennady Bliznetsov, a very good candidate to break the United States' long stranglehold on this event.

Bliznetsov, who has done 16-3 outdoors, probably will be favored in his event and is likely to be going for the American indoor record of 16-4. He won the Philadelphia Inquirer Games at 16-0, then missed at 16-5.

Brumel, who skipped the Philadelphia meet, is, of course, in a class by himself now that John Thomas has retired.

Nittany Lions Tough On Road

By The Associated Press

The Nittany Lions of Penn State can put in a strong claim as the best road team in college basketball this season.

They whipped Bucknell at Lewisburg, Pa., 79-61 Wednesday night for their seventh straight victory, a 14-3 record over-all and their eighth triumph in 11 road games.

Jim Reed's 26 points, including nine in a 13-point spree that broke a 23-23 tie, paced the Lions as they added the Bisons to their previous road victims, Kansas, Kansas State, Gettysburg, Temple, Houston, Detroit and West Virginia.

The third-ranked St. Joseph's Hawks of Philadelphia, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten to see action, won their 10th straight and upped their over-all record to 20-1 by crushing Albright 92-71 in the feature of a doubleheader at the Palestine.

Powers Hitters To Have Edge

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — ig hitter Jack Nicklaus had the conditions in his favor today as he opened his bid for a second straight victory in the $67,500 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament.

Nicklaus and other proponents of the power game were conceded advantage on the damp Arizona Country Club course, a 6,584-yard par-72 desert layout which has been drenched with rain in recent days.

No rain fell Wednesday, but the course had little chance to dry out as the sun spent much of the day behind clouds and temperatures hovered in the 40s.

Despite the slowness of the fairways, soft-spoken Kentuckian Frank Beard proved in Wednesday's pro-am competition that the power boys won't have the game all to themselves.

Beard, of Louisville, made finesse count, whittling out a nine-under-par 63 with accurate irons and a deft putter. He had nine birdies and no bogeys.

Beard didn't get much help from his teammates in the pro-am competition. They contributed only two strokes to his team's best-ball score.

Foursomes led by Miller Barber and Bruce Devlin had best-ball counts of 56 to tie for pro-am honors.

Nicklaus, who tied for third in the Bing Crosby tourney and for fourth in the Bob Hope Desert Classic, indicated in the pro-am that he's fit to defend his Phoenix crown. Big Jack knocked one stroke off par at 71.

Big Buster Has Plans For Pro Boxing Career

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) —Some of Buster Mathis jiggles like gelatin when he moves.

But most of him moves with the authority of a landslide and only an ill-timed mishap knocked him from the United States boxing team in Olympics competition at Tokyo last fall.

One hand in a cast, Buster—"that's my God-given name"—went as a spectator after friends here contributed some $1,800 for expenses. He wanted to be there as a competitor in the spot he had earned by fighting but he broke the hand in an exhibition bout against Joe Frazier of Philadelphia who became his Olympics replacement.

"I haven't really had a good night of sleep since then," says Mathis. "I think about the Olympics all the time. I don't think all the money in the world could make up for not being in it."

Although the hand now is healed, Mathis hasn't boxed for several months. He has been working out in gym sessions and says his "speed and stuff is coming back" according to schedule.

Mathis, 20, makes a living as a sign painter, a trade to which he was introduced about 10 years ago.

Jesse Teaches Jets To Sprint

NEW YORK (AP) — Jesse Owens won four Olympic gold medals, made Hitler look like a bum and beat horses in exhibition races. Now, at 51, comes his toughest test — teaching the New York Jets to run fast.

The Jets have sprinted home 10th, 10th and 10th in the first three years of their existence. Not only do they lack early foot but they die in the stretch. They're not so hot down the back side either. Since the 1964 season ended they have added dash man Yogi Berra.

George Weiss, the Jets' president, announced Wednesday that Owens was joining the club as a special running instructor for spring training. He plans calisthenics and sprints and hopes to have them doing push-ups out of last place.

"I don't expect to find any Bob Hayes among the Jets," said Owens at a news conference. "But I do think I can help the boys discover some of the technique of running. A half step can mean the difference between a live and an out."

Owens lives in Chicago where he is very active in boys club work and with the Illinois Youth Commission.

School To Drop Spanish Course

Due to difficulties in obtaining teachers for foreign languages, the Manistique board of education Tuesday night moved to drop Spanish from the high school curriculum.

The school has been offering three foreign languages and will continue offering German and Latin, as instructors are available for these. Latin has 106 enrolled, Spanish, 101 and German, 35.

Two teachers, including the Spanish teacher have indicated they will not be returning next year and three are undecided, Supt. E. E. Wuehle reported to the board.

The board set April 22 as the date for a special school millage election. The amount has not been set pending budget and state school aid bill studies. The current 4-mill levy expires.

The superintendent was named to represent the board at a meeting to review the Intermediate school district budget March 1 at 8 p.m., in Rapid River.

Announcement also was made of a conference of the U.P. Assn. of school board members and superintendents Feb. 19-20 in Marquette. Resolutions favoring creation of a vocational training school at Blaney Park and a change in school regulations to permit districts to exchange use of buses for educational functions were adopted for presentation at the conference.

On recommendation of school administrators, the school will ask for evaluation next year by North Central Assn.

The new law on released time for students to attend religious instructions in their churches, two hours per week were discussed. A program is being arranged by community churches.

Use of sick leave for educational course payments by Mrs. Lee Pappas and Mrs. Carla McKilligan was approved.

The Manistique school has been selected to work with the Michigan Council on Economic education in its program to improve economic education, through the various subjects such as history and geography, and to better prepare teachers for this. Lowell Cooper will be in charge here.

A dozen "pilot" and 20 to 30 "associate" schools are being selected in the project. Literature on the subject notes that "economic illiteracy is a threat to the economy and free institutions, and that demagogues and economic medicine men flourish on the gullibility of those not informed."

The salary study committee set a meeting for Tuesday. The board accepted for implementation a curriculum report presented by Marvin Frederickson, principal, and jointly prepared by school and board persons. It makes schedules more flexible and other improvements.

A tuition report showed that $22,475 of $61,180 owed by township districts has been paid.

Senior Citizens Will Help At Post House

Those Who Read Succeed

Inability To Read Well Curbs Job Possibilities

NEW YORK — (NEA) — To a functional illiterate the printed page of a newspaper can appear like a random collection of letters of the alphabet. A word here or there may come through with a vague meaning, but the message will be lost in murky confusion.

Recent studies indicate that a quarter of the U. S. adult population may qualify for the label of "functional illiterate." This handicap means more than just a loss of touch with the world. It is a failure in the day-to-day business of existence. The "help wanted" section of the paper becomes a puzzle. If a job is at hand, the application form is a mystery. So concerned is the federal government about this problem that it has earmarked $800,000 to find a cure. The U. S. Office of Education has just launched a research project to find the best ways of teaching children to read. Universities and state departments of education will do the research.

Perhaps 30 years ago reading made little difference in life because a man could get a job without having to read. Today, almost 60 per cent of available jobs require some reading. By 1970, 95 per cent of all jobs will require some reading, according to Labor Department estimates.

The major reason why many men cannot be re-employed when they have been displaced by automation is that they cannot read.

In Chicago, the Cook County Public Aid Department found that nearly every adult on relief was a functional illiterate. Unless he learned to read, each one was condemned permanently to the public relief rolls.

Cities like Chicago, New York and Philadelphia have started schools for unemployed illiterate citizens. The federal government has also provided money for training programs for the unemployed. The Manpower and Redevelopment Act make money available to hard-hit cities so that they can establish retraining centers.

Emergency educational programs offer some relief to adult illiterates but do not get at the cause of the reading problem. Why should the United States have so many illiterates when it spends billions of dollars each year on the public school education?

Some reading experts claim that the method of teaching reading could be blamed. Dr. Arthur Trace, in "What Ivan Knows That Johnny Doesn't," says the prevalent look-say method in America limits beginning readers to an extremely small reading vocabulary. European students, says Dr. Trace learn to read by phonics and have, an early reading vocabulary three times that of American students.

Others have urged the return to phonics, including groups like the Reading Reform Foundation. Dr. Mary Austin, formerly of Harvard and professor of Education at Cleveland's Western Reserve University, and Coleman Morrison, of Harvard, in "The First R," admit that the present programs are "not adequate to produce mature readers," but feel that the causes are more complex than can be cured by a single method. They point especially to the lack of teacher education in language arts and the teaching of reading.

Through the $800,000 research project, the government hopes to find a method that will cure America's reading problem. One of the methods sure to be included in the study is the Initial Teaching Alphabet (ITA), a beginning reading system developed in England. U. S. newspapers led the way in bringing ITA and its special 44-character alphabet to public attention.

Fruit Industry In State Gets Process Accent

By JEAN WORTH

When this century was young, many orchards were planted on Upper Peninsula farms in the hope that the area had a big future in fruit growing.

Very few of those old orchards have been maintained and kept in efficient production and most plantings of fruit trees in the Upper Peninsula today are by hobbyists and not commercial growers, but downstate the orchard industry is a very important one, with its headquarters in Berrien County at the southwest corner of the state on Lake Michigan.

Frank A. Madaski, head of the Cooperative Extension staff of 11 in Berrien County and former Extension chief in Houghton County, points out that Berrien County's payroll for fruit harvest alone is $5 million a year.

Madaski, attending the recent Farmers Week at Michigan State University, East Lansing, expressed concern about the future of the peach industry in Berrien because of the steady encroachment of settlement on peach orchards there. The same process has destroyed the last orange grove in Orange County, California.

Peach Peril

Peach orchard needs are high, well drained soils near the tempering influence of the lake, and this also spells ideal homesites. Inland the cold destroys not only peach blossoms, but even the trees.

Madaski said that although the peach business brings an income of $2 to $2.5 million a year to the area it is feared that 20 years hence there may be no peach orchards in the area, their sites occupied by the continuing sprawl of home building. "Everyone wants to be on a bluff overlooking a nice valley, and that's peach country," said Madaski.

With apples the situation is different and very promising for Michigan orchardists. They grew 12 million bushels of apples four years ago, 14.5 million bushels two years ago and 18 millions last year. More and more of the harvest is going into food products like apple juice and blended juices, pie kits, applesauce and other items.

"The processing industry is just beginning to find the tremendous uses for apples," said Madaski. "There's a new juice with an apple base and cherry and with black raspberry flavoring that has an aroma that can knock off carbonated beverages. Musselman Division of Pet Milk is now the largest maker of applesauce and our accent on red apples for eye appeal in the fresh market makes trouble because red skins discolor applesauce."

Most Is Processed

"Yellow Delicious is best. We can't grow a Yellow Delicious for the fresh market because we can't keep a smooth skin; it gets russet.

"For the first time last year 51 per cent of our fruit went into processing; most of it had always gone to the fresh market."

"This processing is changing fruit growing. The Michigan peach is mostly a freestone and it's not a good canner; it cuts raggedly and it has a red heart. The new Baby Gold series slices well and stays a golden yellow in syrup. Stanley Johnson of the MSU South Haven Experiment Station has developed the Red Haven peach which is the most widely grown peach in the world. He has worked on Upper Peninsula blueberries and strawberries and red raspberries and is the modern Luther Burbank.

"A blueberry hybrid crossing the U. P.'s low bush and the standard high bush blueberry has produced fruit as big as your thumbnail. There are test plots in Alger, Luce and Houghton counties.

"The strawberry industry has left California because it can't get Mexican ranchero stoop labor any more and it's going to leave Michigan."

Smaller Trees

Madaski sees trends that are going to produce eventual apple orchards of semi-dwarf trees in windows, harvested with mechanical shakers and fruit collectors. Where trees used to be planted in 25x25 feet spacing the new semi-dwarf trees are planted 25 to 80 to the acre and some plantings are so tight more than 100 are planted per acre. Thus while trees have increased, orchard acreage has not increased proportionately in Michigan.

Favored varieties today are in order: McIntosh, Jonathan, Delicious (red and yellow) and 48 other varieties. The three names contribute 80 per cent of the state's apple crop.

BIG HEART—Miss Chloe Gifford, of Lexington, Ky., a Heart Fund volunteer for 15 years, will be honored Feb. 16 in a White House ceremony as the nation's outstanding Heart Fund volunteer. Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, as national honorary Heart Sunday chairman, will present the award.

U.P. Inaugural Plan Released

IRON MOUNTAIN — The Twin Cities of Iron Mountain and Kingsford will roll out the red carpet for Governor George Romney for his U.P. inaugural here Saturday, March 13.

Complete schedule of events was announced today by Richard Smith, general chairman.

Following Romney's arrival at Ford Airport, the inaugural program will officially open with a civic luncheon at 11:30 at the Dickinson Hotel. A motorcade at 1:30 through downtown Iron Mountain will take Romney to the Dickinson County armory in Kingsford, where the inaugural will take place.

The inaugural ceremony is scheduled for 2 o'clock outside of the armory. The swearing-in ceremony will take place on the platform of the county's mobile bandshell.

At 3 p.m. there will be a public reception for the governor inside the armory and from 5 until 6:30 there will be a reception and buffet dinner for the governor at Pine Grove Country Club.

The inaugural ball will start at 9 o'clock at the Armory with the event open to the public. A teenage inaugural ball is scheduled for 8:30, site to be announced.

Invitations are being mailed to all elective officers and municipal officials of all counties in the Upper Peninsula.

Both Parties For Legislative Study Of Judge Needs

Arthur Elliott, Republican state chairman, joined with Zolton Ferency, Democratic state chairman, in issuing a call upon their respective members of the State Legislature to appoint a committee to study that section of the new constitution dealing with filling judicial vacancies.

"The present method of appointing judges to fill vacancies has proved in practice to be less effective than is desirable," the party leaders noted.

Both Ferency and Elliott agreed that an in-depth study of the vacancy problem should be made so that the rights of all citizens will be better and more swiftly protected.

"The court dockets are falling further and further behind. Many community and professional leaders have called for action. We hope that members of both parties in the legislature will join together to appoint a committee to formulate a method of solving this problem," Elliott and Ferency said.

There are almost no retired judges available for an interim appointment, so that the majority of the many vacancies go unfilled. Formerly vacancies were filled by appointment by the governor.

Zoning Change Asked; Want To Build Apartment

A request for a change in zoning to permit construction of an apartment building was heard by the zoning committee of the Escanaba Planning Commission at the City Hall Wednesday.

Dale Vinette, chairman of the Planning Commission, is also chairman of the zoning committee.

Richard Juetten of Escanaba asked the committee to consider zoning an area between 8th Ave. S. and Immanuel Lutheran Church on the west side of S. 23rd St. from Residence A to Residence C to permit multiple dwellings.

The zoning committee was told that Juetten has a client who is interested in building a 15-unit apartment building.

People of the area will be contacted by Milton Embs, Planning Commission secretary, to determine their attitude regarding such a change. Before any change is made it would have to be recommended by the Commission to the Council and then approved by the Council after public hearing.

The zoning committee also heard Dr. Roger Beauchamp, Escanaba dentist, report that he would like to erect a clinic type building on the northwest corner at 8th Ave. S. and 23rd St. The Committee directed Embs to learn the policy regarding such structures in other communities.

Driver Arrested After Running Six Stop Signs

Escanaba police after a chase at high speeds on slippery streets apprehended a youth who drove at speeds up to 50 miles an hour through six stop signs on Escanaba's south side last night.

Terry M. Lane, 20, of 1017 2nd Ave. S., pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court to a charge of reckless driving and was ordered to pay fine and costs of $105 or go to jail for 30 days.

Police said Lane told them he wanted to "try out his car and then sped away when the patrol sought to halt him. With Lane were two young men.

The chase began at 10:40 p.m. at 8th Ave. S. and 19th St. and ended at 10th St. and 3rd Ave. S.

Reprisal Raid Escorted By 20 U.S. Jets

combat totaled 270. Four U.S. Army advisers also were missing after a Viet Cong band attacked a town 80 miles north of Saigon.

The first Qui Nhon victim identified by the Pentagon was Pvt. Tommy J. Belcher, whose wife Mary lives in Columbus, Ohio.

Hotel Collapses

A 10-man Viet Cong terror team raked the four-story concrete building with machine-gun fire at 8:10 p.m. Then one Communist was believed to have thrown a grenade into the lobby, rushed in after it and deposited 100 pounds of explosives in a satchel. Two other charges were placed around the building.

When they went off, the hotel collapsed into a 30-foot pile of rubble. Two of the Viet Cong and seven members of a Vietnamese family near the hotel died in the blast.

Viet Cong infiltrators today commandeered a fleet of 50 junks and sailed toward the Qui Nhon city wharfs 300 yards from the wrecked American billet. Intense fire from armed helicopters finally drove them off. Other helicopters blasted Viet Cong positions in swamps near the town.

Qui Nhon is a coastal supply base and air center for helicopters and fighter-bomber units. Much of the equipment comes in by small vessels from Saigon.

The Viet Cong also attacked a national police station and a power station at Qui Nhon and carried out diversionary strikes against an outpost and an air strip.

Rates Go Up; Auto Insurers Leave Michigan

Insurance companies. They act as judge, jury and hang man in deciding whether a driver gets or keeps his insurance coverage.

The hearing dealt with a bill by Rep. Robert Mahoney, D-Detroit, requiring that when a motorist has his insurance cancelled, the insurer enclose a letter explaining why he was dropped. He had received a complaint from a man who was dropped for no explainable reason, he said, "and we could not find out why."

"I see no reason for including a letter, when any insurance company will give the motorist this information with a telephone call," said Edward G. Rockwell of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

All insurance companies are in the business to insure cars and to grow in size, he said, but are forced into cancellations because of mounting losses.

Motorist Fined For Drunk Driving

Clement J. Rivard, 65, of 1408 Lake Shore Drive, pleaded guilty in Municipal Court on Wednesday to a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants and was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs of $5.

His operator's license was suspended. Escanaba police arrested Rivard Saturday evening after an accident at 23rd St. and 3rd Ave. N.

Briefly Told

Delta County offices will be closed Friday in observance of Lincoln's birthday.

Delta Chapter 118, F.&A.M. will meet at 7:30 p.m. today at Anderson Funeral Home to attend Order of Eastern Star services for Mrs. James Lowell. A regular chapter meeting will be held at the Masonic Temple after the services.
